

--- Call for Contributions - 3rd International Conference on Music and Gesture ---

3rd International Conference on Music and Gesture
March 5 – 6, 2010
Schulich School of Music, McGill University, Montreal, Canada

The 3rd International Conference on Music and Gesture will be held at McGill University on March 5 and 6, 2010, as part of the MusiMarch 2010 Festival.

We encourage the submission of abstracts describing novel research on gesture and music. Abstracts should be no longer than 500 words and sent electronically to mg3@music.mcgill.ca.

A total of 20 contributions will be selected for presentation during the conference, with abstracts printed in the MusiMarch 2010 booklet.

Important dates:

- Abstract submission: September 27, 2009
- Abstract acceptance/rejection: October 12, 2009
- Final abstract due: October 26, 2009

Like the previous Music and Gesture Conferences held in the UK (Norwich 2003 and Manchester 2006), MG3 will consist of talks on several aspects of gesture and music, including (but not limited to):

- Performance and instrumental gestures
- Musical gestures
- Gestural control of music
- Gesture acquisition, tracking and recognition
- Synthesis of gestures

Conference organizers:

- Marcelo M. Wanderley, McGill University
- Jonathan Wild, McGill University
- Sha Xin Wei, Concordia University

MusiMarch 2010 organizer: Denys Bouliane, McGill University

For more information: mg3@music.mcgill.ca